Bride's Father Performs Ceremony in Quaint Old Rectory.

ROMANCE ATTACHES TO HISTORIC HOME

Miss Hilda Robinson Smith and Lyman Beecher Stowe Are Married.

By Telegraph to The Tribune J Fairfax Court House, Va., April 18.in this part of the country in years was that of Norman Joseph Gaynor, son of the late Mayor Gaynor of New York, and Miss Retsy Page, daughter of the Rev. Frank Page, which took place at 8 o'clock it the rectory of Zion Episcopal Church

Surrounding the bride were Mrs. Gaynor, Miss Helen Gayner, Miss Ruth Gay-nor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vingut, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Webb, Rufus Gayner and E. T. Bedford, fiance of Miss Helen Gayuer, all of New York, and many promipeople from Virginia, Washington

The bride's brother, John Page, of New York, entered the drawing room with his sister, while Jonathan Grout, son of forer Controller Grout, of New York, was best man. The pride's father performed the ceremony, the only attendant of the bride being her sister. Miss Time C.

Page, maid of honor. The bride were a gown of soft white satin, made with some of the old family lace worn by brides of generations past. Softening the whole costume was a long tulle vell held with orange blossoms.

The quaint drawing rooms were laden branches of flowering trees and shrubs. There were many pleasing sug-gestions of the historic connection of the

The bride is a niece of Thomas Nelson Page, Ambassador to Italy, and when Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor sail for Europe on April 21 for a wedding journey of several months in foreign countries Rome will be their destination. The Ambassador and Mrs. Page will entertain handsomely for the bridal couple. The love affair of Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor began back in their girl and boy days, when the bride of to-night was scarcely more than ten years old, and lasted through the student life of the bridem, when he attended Colgate College,

The scene of the wedding to-night teemed with historic interest, the rectory being the house where Colonel Mosby and his men captured Brigadier General Stoughton, of the Union Army, during the Civil War, Mosby and thirty men capturing 100 prisoners. The raid was responsible for a famous romance, when Antonia Ford, a beautiful Virginia girl, was accused of being Mosby's accessory. and Major Willard, member of the well known Willard family of Virginia, was sent to arrest her. The officer fell in love with his prisoner, and later married Their son is Joseph Willard, United Lyme," by F. W. Ramsdell had rounded out another romance which, while probably less historic, was to his mind far more important.
